

Mayor's Youth Advisory Council

2019-2020

"Every day, in local arenas all the way to the White House, adults sit around and decide what problems youth have and what youth need, without ever consulting us."

- Jason Warren, New York City Youth Force

The purpose of the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council (MYAC) is to give young people the tools, training and trust to apply their creativity and energy to effect change in their own lives and in the future of their neighborhoods, communities, cities and states.

Are you interested in having your voice heard in local government? If so, the Ammon Mayor's Youth Advisory Council is the place for you. MYAC members participate in leadership activities, community service projects, and social events designed to help shape the Ammon youth community. MYAC provides participants the necessary skills, experience, and confidence to succeed and exceed in the future.

"You are the leaders of our future. You have the power to bring about positive change in this community right now. Our city, state, nation, and the world will need strong leaders. The Mayor's Youth Advisory Council is an opportunity for you to make good things happen today. How will you make this community better? What will be your contribution? I look forward to working with you in this important role." Mayor Coletti
